

EXECUTIVE ORDERS, PROCLAMATIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY, AND STATEMENTS
ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR
PURSUANT TO A.R.S. § 41-1013(B)(3)

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires the full-text publication of all Executive Orders and Proclamations of General Applicability issued by the Governor. In addition, the Register shall include each statement filed by the Governor in granting a commutation, pardon or reprieve, or stay or suspension of execution where a sentence of death is imposed. With the exception of egregious errors, content (including spelling, grammar, and punctuation) of these orders has been reproduced as submitted.

 POLLUTION PREVENTION WEEK ***

[M05-244]

WHEREAS, Arizonans take great pride in the natural wonders of their state and are in favor of a strong economy and a clean and safe environment; and

WHEREAS, pollution prevention is an approach to environmental protection that focuses on prevention, and is therefore a preferable strategy for protecting our environment; and

WHEREAS, buildings built to Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) standards emphasize energy efficiency, materials selection, and indoor environmental quality, all elements of pollution prevention leading to a healthier environment for our children; and

WHEREAS, a strong pollution prevention program will reduce the number and types of contaminants adversely affecting Arizona's children and public; and

WHEREAS, pollution prevention increases industrial efficiency and can save businesses money; and

WHEREAS, pollution prevention offers both environmental protection and increased economic competitiveness; and

WHEREAS, by focusing attention on pollution prevention and innovative technologies, the state of Arizona will meet the challenges of the next century for economic competitiveness, and environmental protection; and

WHEREAS, the National Pollution Prevention Week is an opportunity for government, industry, schools, military, and environmental organizations to recognize the potential of pollution prevention and to work together to plan for a prosperous and sustainable future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim September 19 through 23, 2005 as.

 DÍA DE LAS FIESTAS PATRIAS ***

CONSIDERANDO QUE, durante el día 15 de septiembre de 2005, miles de personas se congregarán a lo largo y ancho del Gran Estado de Arizona para celebrar el 195 aniversario de la Independencia de México, con lo que culminarán las fiestas patrias de este año; y

CONSIDERANDO QUE, las fiestas patrias conmemoran la Independencia de México y rinden tributo a los patriotas y visionarios que con gran determinación crearon una república comprometida con las ideas de libertad, justicia y buen gobierno; y

Arizona Administrative Register / Secretary of State
Governor's Executive Orders/Proclamations

CONSIDERANDO QUE, en la madrugada del 16 de septiembre de 1810, el padre Miguel Hidalgo y Costilla convocó a los habitantes del pueblo de Dolores, incitándolos a combatir por la independencia contra España; y

CONSIDERANDO QUE, el histórico Grito de Dolores es un ejemplo perenne de lo mejor que hay en la gente de México: valentía, determinación y orgullo nacional; y

CONSIDERANDO QUE, Arizona se siente honrada por los históricos lazos de amistad y colaboración conjunta con México, y que permanece resuelta a continuar en su compromiso de fortalecer la cooperación bilateral y la prosperidad recíproca;

POR LO QUE, yo, Janet Napolitano, Gobernadora del Estado de Arizona, por el presente proclamo el día Miércoles 15 de septiembre del 2005 como

e invito a todos a que se me unan en proclamar, ¡Qué Viva México!

TESTIMONIO, firmando con mi puño y letra y ordenando que se le coloque el Gran Sello de Arizona.

 HIRE A VETERAN MONTH ***

[M05-247]

WHEREAS, Arizona is home to more than 565,000 veterans; and

WHEREAS, whenever called upon to defend our nation's security at home or abroad, the men and women who serve in the U.S. Army, Navy, Marines, Air Force and Coast Guard have responded immediately and effectively, placing national interests above their own; and

WHEREAS, of the 48 million of these citizen soldiers who have served the United States of America, more than a million have made the ultimate sacrifice by giving their lives, and another 1.5 million have been wounded; and

WHEREAS, today our men and women in uniform daily put their lives at risk, seeking to secure the blessings of freedom and liberty for oppressed people around the globe; and

WHEREAS, in 1944, President Franklin D. Roosevelt signed the G.I. Bill into law, he observed that more than anything else America's service men and women wanted "the assurances of satisfactory employment" upon their return to civilian life; and

WHEREAS, today's veterans offer to Arizona's businesses the benefits of high skills, education, leadership, maturity and dedication learned in military service; and

WHEREAS, these highly specialized skills are available to Arizona employers to utilize as a contribution to the overall well being of the economy and the state;

 LUNG CANCER AWARENESS MONTH ***

WHEREAS, lung cancer is the leading cause of cancer death in both men and women in the United States and the world, this year killing more Americans than breast, prostate, and colon cancer combined; and [M05-248]

WHEREAS, three thousand people in Arizona alone will be diagnosed with lung cancer this year; and

WHEREAS, former smokers and people who have never smoked comprise the majority of new cases of lung cancer each year; and

WHEREAS, there is currently no standard screening for lung cancer, and funding for lung cancer medical research falls far short of that for other less fatal diseases; and

WHEREAS, the Lung Cancer Alliance is dedicated to informing and helping people living with lung cancer or at risk for the disease;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janet Napolitano, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim November 2005 as in the State of Arizona, and urge all citizens to do all we can to increase awareness of lung cancer issues, and offer compassion to people with lung cancer.

 LUNG CANCER AWARENESS MONTH ***
