

Governor's Executive Orders/Proclamations

EXECUTIVE ORDERS, PROCLAMATIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY, AND STATEMENTS
ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR
PURSUANT TO A.R.S. § 41-1013(B)(3)

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires the full-text publication of all Executive Orders and Proclamations of General Applicability issued by the Governor. In addition, the Register shall include each statement filed by the Governor in granting a commutation, pardon or reprieve, or stay or suspension of execution where a sentence of death is imposed. With the exception of egregious errors, content (including spelling, grammar, and punctuation) of these orders has been reproduced as submitted.

 CAREER DEVELOPMENT MONTH ***

[M10-429]

WHEREAS, work has been called the finest expression of the human spirit; and

WHEREAS, given the multitude of occupations in Arizona's economy, planning a career can be formidable, and experts agree that the ongoing process of career development is essential for all individuals to maximize their personal potential, as well as for the continued health of our economy; and

WHEREAS, career development is necessary for children as they expand their awareness of the world of work, for youth exploring educational and career options, and for adults faced with a workplace of challenge, change and the need for life-long learning; it is clear that informed decision-making and planning are keys to career success; and

WHEREAS, the goals of the institutions that work to inform the public about career development services and how to utilize them, publicize where services are available and build public understanding of the importance of career development.

 LUNG CANCER AWARENESS MONTH ***

[M10-434]

WHEREAS, lung cancer is the leading cause of cancer death in both men and women in Arizona, the United States, and the world, killing more Americans than breast, prostate, and colon cancer combined; and

WHEREAS, in the United States in 2010, it is estimated that 222,520 new cases of lung cancer will be diagnosed and it is estimated that of those diagnosed, 157,300 will die from lung cancer, accounting for nearly 27% of all cancer deaths; and

WHEREAS, it is estimated that in 2010, there will be 4,030 people who are diagnosed with lung cancer in Arizona, and over 2,670 Arizonans will succumb to the disease; and

WHEREAS, causes of lung cancer include smoking, exposure to toxins and known carcinogens, and genetic abnormalities; and

WHEREAS, approximately 80% of lung cancer cases are diagnosed in people who have never smoked or who have quit smoking; and

WHEREAS, lung cancer generally has a relatively poor prognosis and even with treatment, people with advanced non-small cell lung cancer have a 5-year survival rate of less than 5 percent; and

WHEREAS, increased awareness and coordination among all stakeholders – federal, state and local governments, providers, patients, researchers and community groups– is critical to promote the prevention, diagnosis and treatment of lung cancer.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim the month of November 2010 as
