

EXECUTIVE ORDERS, PROCLAMATIONS OF GENERAL APPLICABILITY, AND STATEMENTS
ISSUED BY THE GOVERNOR
PURSUANT TO A.R.S. § 41-1013(B)(3)

The Administrative Procedure Act (APA) requires the full-text publication of all Executive Orders and Proclamations of General Applicability issued by the Governor. In addition, the Register shall include each statement filed by the Governor in granting a commutation, pardon or reprieve, or stay or suspension of execution where a sentence of death is imposed. With the exception of egregious errors, content (including spelling, grammar, and punctuation) of these orders has been reproduced as submitted.

* ARIZONA MEMORIAL DAY ***

[M11-174]

WHEREAS, on this Memorial Day we remember and honor the courageous men and women of our armed forces who have risked and lost their lives to protect America's interests, to defend our freedom, to preserve our values, and to advance the ideals of democracy; and

WHEREAS, many families have experienced the loss of loved ones who bravely served in America's Armed Forces; and

WHEREAS, the fighting spirit of the American military permeates the history of our nation and even though our world has changed over time and our armed forces have changed with it, the valor, strength, and courage of the men and women in uniform remains the same; and

WHEREAS, we express our profound sympathy and gratitude to the families who have lost their loved ones in service to America, and we acknowledge the debt we owe to those men and women who cherished peace and died in the defense of it; and

WHEREAS, it is a privilege to express our gratitude to those whose sacrifices serve as constant reminders of the high price of liberty; and

WHEREAS, in respect for and recognition of these courageous men and women, all veterans of the United States Military Services, state and local government officials, educators, students, historians, and all patriotic citizens of this great state and nation are encouraged to observe Memorial Day, May 30, 2011 with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim May 30, 2011 as

* FIBROMYALGIA AWARENESS DAY ***

[M11-169]

WHEREAS, an estimated 10 million Americans have been diagnosed with Fibromyalgia, most of which are women; and

WHEREAS, fibromyalgia is a chronic pain disorder that is poorly understood but is becoming an increasingly common diagnosis and presently there is no cure for fibromyalgia, but there are treatments that can help; and

WHEREAS, as with other chronic pain conditions, many patients with fibromyalgia consult multiple health care providers and often live with the pain for years before it is properly diagnosed and managed; and

WHEREAS, fibromyalgia takes a toll emotionally, financially, and socially on patients, their families, friends, co-workers, and communities; and

WHEREAS, many people have found ways to enjoy a quality life while living with fibromyalgia; and

WHEREAS, increased awareness and expanded knowledge of the realities of living with fibromyalgia will allow communities at large to better support patients and their families, friends, co-workers, and employers who struggle with the challenges of this chronic pain disorder.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim May 12, 2011 as

* FIBROMYALGIA AWARENESS DAY ***

* LUPUS DAY ***

[M11-168]

WHEREAS, lupus is an autoimmune disease that can cause severe damage to the tissue and organs in the body and in some cases may cause death; and

WHEREAS, more than five million people worldwide suffer the devastating effects of this disease and each year over a hundred thousand young women, men, and children are newly diagnosed with lupus, most of which are women of childbearing age; and

WHEREAS, medical research efforts into lupus and the discovery of safer, more effective treatments for lupus patients are under-funded in comparison with diseases of comparable magnitude and severity; and

WHEREAS, due to the lack of research and the unfamiliarity with the symptoms and health effects of lupus, it is difficult to immediately diagnosis this disease, causing people with lupus to suffer for many years before they obtain a correct diagnosis and medical treatment; and

WHEREAS, there is a deep, unmet need worldwide to educate and support individuals and families affected by lupus and there is an urgent need to increase awareness in communities worldwide of the debilitating impact of lupus.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Janice K. Brewer, Governor of the State of Arizona, do hereby proclaim May 10, 2011 as
